Subject: Call for Nominations: 2022-23 UC President's Pre-Professoriate Fellows (PPPF)
Date: Thursday, December 2, 2021 10:02:11 AM

Dear Campus Partners,

The Graduate Division is requesting departmental nominations for the UC President's Pre-Professoriate Fellowship (PPPF), which is part of the UC-Hispanic Serving Institutions Doctoral Diversity Initiative (UC-HSI DDI) funded by the University of California Office of the President (UCOP). The initiative's goal is to enhance faculty diversity and pathways to the professoriate for underrepresented students who earned a bachelor's or master's degree from a California Hispanic Serving Institution \(HSI\). The fellowship aims to foster interest in and preparation for the professoriate among historically underrepresented groups particularly Latinx, African Americans, American Indian/Native Americans, Filipinx, and Pacific Islanders in all disciplines; women in STEM; and Asian Americans in the humanities and social sciences.

For more information about eligibility criteria and how to nominate your students, please visit this Graduate Division Campus Partners Collab page.

All nominations are due by Wednesday, January 12, 2022.

Dean, The Graduate Division

UC San Diego occupies the un-ceded territory of Kumeyaay Nation. Today, the Kumeyaay people continue to maintain their political sovereignty and cultural traditions, and are vital members of the San Diego community. We acknowledge their great contributions to the region and the university's responsibility to honor and serve this community.
