About

The Kenneth & Dorothy Hill Fellowship provides support for doctoral graduate students whose work centrally entails research in the Special Collections at the UC San Diego Library. This year's awardee will receive a stipend of $12,000.

Eligibility

Eligible doctoral students may come from the Humanities, Social Sciences, Scripps Institution of Oceanography, Biomedical Sciences, and Neurosciences.

Award recipient must meet all eligibility requirements for fellowship funding at the time of the award disbursement.

Nominations

Departments/programs may nominate up to two (2) eligible doctoral students via this Google Form (Single Sign-On is required) and upload all required supporting documents as .pdf files at the end of the Google form.

If nominating more than one student, please submit a separate Google Nomination Form for each nominee.

Note: Before nominating any student, the department/program should have the student contact Lynda Claassen to confirm their eligibility and use of the materials available at the Mandeville Special Collections Library.

Nomination supporting materials to include:

• Nominee’s statement of proposed research demonstrates that a significant portion of the research will be in the Mandeville Special Collections Library.
• Two signed letters of recommendation from faculty.
• Emailed nominations will NOT be accepted.

If you have any questions please send an email to gradadvisor@ucsd.edu which will create a ticket in the Services & Support portal.

Deadlines

We have not received any nominee whose research aligns with the award criteria and eligibility requirements.

The deadline is extended through July 27th, 2022
